Robert Hughes, Vice President – Construction Division American Arbitration Association

Wednesday, December 8, 2010

Breakfast & Networking 7:30 AM - 8:00 AM

Program 8:00 AM - 9:00 AM

8000 Norman Center Drive, Second Floor Conference Room, Bloomington, MN 55437

During this presentation Robert Hughes from the American Arbitration Association will be discussing various topics including: the advantages of Arbitration over Litigation; the importance of neutrality for the parties in the dispute; time tested arbitration rules; selecting the right arbitrator for the case; speed and efficiency; and having your case administered vs. going it alone.

Robert Hughes is the vice president for the AAA’s Central Region Construction Division, and is responsible for the states of Missouri, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, and Ohio. Mr. Hughes supervises business development, education and neutral panel maintenance in the region. He is based out of the St. Louis Regional Office for the American Arbitration Association.

Mr. Hughes has more than 25 years’ experience in relationship marketing and for the last decade, has held senior level positions with an information technology firm specializing in customer relationship management (CRM) Web-based software. Mr. Hughes supervised the firm’s new business development teams throughout the Midwest and Southwest. Mr. Hughes has been involved in various corporate acquisitions prior to his information technology background.

Mr. Hughes earned his bachelor’s degree in business administration from Central Missouri State University.
